

CHICAGOGRAMS

—Tennis courts, golf links and baseball diamonds will be the main make-up of Warren Woods, out in Austin, this year.

—About a week or ten days more and all the political posters will come down out of the windows. Big show'll be over.

—For spring weather, today is a frost.

—The things we have planted in our garden remind us of that famous war time song, "You Can't Get 'Em Up."

—They tell us that the moving van was the originator of "moving pictures."

—Doc. Wiley says nix on too much sweet stuff for the kids. Every kid's sweet tooth, however, is stronger than his wisdom tooth.

—As soon as the zoo in Lincoln park opens up for the season the monkey business will start again. Also the giraffe, lion and zebra business.

—Signs of springtime oft remind us, we can—buy red lemonade.

—In municipal court a judge asked the colored prisoner his age. "Twenty foahr, yo honah," replied Rastas. "Well, you're going to be just twenty-five when you get out—next case," replied the judge.

IT RHYMES!

By Jim Manee

The fellow who claims

That this weather is spring

Is a good ways from that

Which is just the right thing.

We wish to inform

That the springtime's been lost.

What ought to be warmth, folks,

Is nothing but frost.

P. S. — Any boob who's been out today knows that.

NEW "LOVE CULT" TANGLE

Alliance, O., March 26. — Mysterious rites believed to have been performed at the "Brotherhood Home" of the Kingdom of God, a religious "new love" cult of 12 members, 7 of them women, are under investigation following death of Amy G. Tanner, 23, a convert, under circumstances that indicate an illegal operation had been performed. "Apostle" P. A. George, leader of the cult, is in jail and other members are under surveillance.

George in his cell declared: "The voice of God speaks to me and tells me I am innocent of the charge. I do not believe in free love, but the laws of men are not the laws of God and every man has a real wife, though she may not be the one the law united him to."

"LOCAL COLOR" COSTS JOB

While searching in Chicago for "local color" for a book on vice which he intended to write, Rev. J. B. Trout, pastor of Church of the Brethren, Lanark, Ill., was spied in company with a woman of the underworld.

When Rev. Trout got back to Lanark he found he had "resigned." But he's written his book. It tells of the evils of the city and their remedy, as Rev. Trout sees it.
